

EXCELLENCE IN SURGICAL EDUCATION FACULTY AWARDS

Philip J. Wolfson ASE OUTSTANDING TEACHER

ASE DISTINGUISHED EDUCATOR

The Excellence in Surgical Education Awards have been established by the Association for Surgical Education to recognize exemplary performance by surgical educators. The awards are funded by the Association for Surgical Education Foundation Past President's Fund. These awards are made to highlight and encourage scholarship in the area of surgical education.

ASE Philip J. Wolfson Outstanding Teacher

The Philip J. Wolfson Outstanding Teacher Award will be given annually to individuals who are actively involved in surgical education and who are considered by their chair, peers, residents, and/or students to be outstanding teachers. Nominees for these awards must possess the qualities of an outstanding teacher which include: commitment to teaching, expert knowledge, innovation, enthusiasm and stimulation of interest, encouragement of problem solving, ability to provide feedback and effective evaluation, role modeling of professional characteristics, accessibility and openness to new ideas. Documentation of teaching excellence must be provided, which may include but is not limited to: teaching evaluation reports, dissemination of educational approaches and outcomes via presentations or publications, development of educational programs and media, and program evaluation reports.

ASE Distinguished Educator

The Distinguished Educator Award will be given annually to one individual who has demonstrated excellence as a master educator. In addition to recognized skills as an excellent teacher, nominees for this award will need a portfolio with clear documentation of scholarship and significant contributions to surgical education. Contributions to surgical education may be in a variety of categories that would include the following: educational leadership, curriculum development, education research, participation in national education meetings, educational publications in peer-reviewed media, creation of innovative teaching programs at the UGME, GME, or CME level.

Eligibility

- Member of Association for Surgical Education
- Teacher/Educator of medical students, residents or faculty
- Winners of Distinguished Educator Award may win only once
- Winners of Outstanding Teacher Award are ineligible for 3 years after winning

Nomination Process

- Nominations will be solicited by the ASE President on an annual basis
- Nominations will be made by the department chair
- Candidates will be nominated for either Outstanding Teacher or Distinguished Educator (not both)
- The Teaching Portfolio is the same for both awards, however, nominees for Distinguished Educator should have considerably more national prominence as an educator, including scholarship and publications.
- If the teaching portfolio is not included, the nomination will not be accepted.

Please indicate on the portfolio form whether this is a nomination for outstanding teacher or distinguished educator award.
